I found The Cat from Hue by John Laurence to be one of the best historical accounts of the Vietnam War that I have read. I missed reading the Cat from Hue when it came out in 2002. By that time America had gone through Desert Storm, 9/11, fighting in Afghanistan, and was about to invade Iraq. Vietnam was far in the rear view mirror.

The Cat From Hue: A Vietnam War Story by John Laurence

In this superb book, The Cat from Hue, he returns to that time, drawing on long-buried memories to capture the confusion, deceit, and terror of the era. In 1968, John Laurence unhappily found himself dodging bullets and poking among ruins of the ancient Vietnamese city of Hue, eventually wandering square into the sights of a gun held by a North Vietnamese soldier, who could easily have shot him dead but did not.
